

FREE EVENT

FAMILIES WELCOME

A Commemoration of the Duke of Clarence

Sunday 28th November/All Day

Official opening by the mayor of Marlow at 11AM.

The 'Duke of Clarence' pub has kindly allowed Marlow Museum the use of the area beyond the bar for the day's activities, with the added benefit of use of their marquee and garden patio.

We welcome everyone who crosses the pub's threshold on Sunday, without murderous intentions, of course.

Craft displays and members of local organisations will complement the guided tours of the curated exhibits. Don't be surprised to see one or two of us in medieval costume. Medieval music will add to the background ambience.

The pub will be offering a special cocktail menu to mark the occasion. Mulled wine will also be on offer to add to the seasonal nature of the event.

Marlow Museum will be selling merchandise including Christmas cards, 'The Story of Marlow' booklet and 'The Children's Story of Marlow' booklet.

Entry to the event is completely free of charge.

There will be children's activities, including a fun quiz and 'designing your own coat of arms and shield'.

A seasonal 'Duke of Clarence' venison stew recipe sheet will be available, made with that very important ingredient, Malmsey wine.

Dave Part
Marlow Museum